

The following contains the primary teaching points from a youth lesson presented on 12/18/2013. Feel free to use this, but do not publish or reproduce without giving the author credit.

Worst Case Scenario

Synopsis: Many times in life, we evaluate the outcome of choices and decisions based on the “worst case scenario”. When it comes to buying a car, or deciding what outfit to wear, the stakes aren’t very high, but when it comes to life or death situations, the worst case scenario could have eternal significance!

Key Scripture(s):

- I Corinthians 5:5 (KJV)
- Matthew 7:13-14 (KJV)
- Proverbs 13:15 (KJV)
- Philippians 3:12-14 (NLT)

Key Points:

- Don’t follow the crowds or stay anywhere that is too crowded
- Don’t panic
- Stay where it is safe
- Be prepared to leave things behind
- Don’t take others down with you
- Stay low to the ground

